Head of School

A Message to students, parents, faculty and staff...

As a great believer in the necessity of change for personal growth, I am very pleased to be making a change in my educational career and joining your school community. I look forward to meeting all of you and building many new friendships in the near future.

The uniqueness and diversity of the educational programs at your school are sure to provide me with many new challenges and experiences, and I encourage you to share your appreciation of them with me.

Biography

Master of Education (Educational Administration)	1998
Bachelor of Sciences (Functional Biology)	1983

After growing up in a number of forestry based towns throughout British Columbia, Wilma Jamieson graduated with a degree in Science from the University of Victoria. Fifteen years later, she completed her Masters in Education from the University of Victoria, her research focused on staff collegiality, collaboration and decision making. Mrs. Jamieson is a long standing school leader with more than 15 years of experience at the senior administrative level.

Other current leadership opportunities in which she is involved include serving as the Catholic Independent Schools representative on the BCeSIS igroup, the group responsible for the implementation of the BCeSIS student management program in BC Independent Schools, and as a BC Independent Schools External Evaluation Team Member, responsible for reviewing the educational program, teacher certification, and funding requirements of BC Independent Schools.

For the past 8 years she has been Principal of St. Andrew's Regional High School located in Victoria. Mrs. Jamieson is a strong supporter of Independent Schools, with her own children being alumni of Queen of Angels School in Duncan.

A passion for the outdoors prevails when Mrs. Jamieson is away from school, finding time for garden and walking with her husband and dogs. A strong believer in the benefits of participation in athletics, Mrs. Jamieson spends much of her free time watching her children or any other team that catches her attention in a variety of sports.
