

QUEEN
MARGARET'S SCHOOL

DR. DANIELLE FRITZ AND PETER HOLMES SCHOLARSHIP
APPLICATION IS DUE APRIL 29

ABOUT THE AWARD:

Calling all QMS Equestrian students!

The annual Dr. Danielle Fritz and Peter Holmes Scholarship is available to Equestrian students attending Queen Margaret's School. This award has a maximum value of $1,500 and covers all basic veterinary services (vaccines, deworming, dental care, etc.) for one student's horse for a full school year. This grant also includes free entry fees and 50% of stabling costs for one horse to attend any one of the Saanich Shows in the Sun (SSITS) horse shows taking place in 2023-2024.

Please note: this scholarship does not include extended or emergency veterinary services such as joint injections, arthritis treatments, ulcer treatments, etc. In addition, this scholarship does not include any membership dues or mandatory fees required for entry into a SSITS show.

The Dr. Danielle Fritz and Peter Holmes Scholarship recipients are selected by the Director of Equestrian and Equestrian Program Coaches, along with Dr. Fritz from those applicants meeting the following parameters:

- Senior students (Grade 8–12) currently enrolled in the Team QMS program at QMS
- Open to students who are possibly interested in a career in the equine industry (i.e. veterinary studies, farrier, coaching, equine nutrition, chiropractic, etc.)
- Candidates must be of exemplary character and demonstrate commitment to their equine partner and the equestrian sport

ALL APPLICATIONS MUST INCLUDE:

- A completed application form
- A written essay to QMS coaches of approximately 500–1000 words
- Choose a topic involving routine equine health such as: worming, dentistry, specific vaccines, shoeing, etc. (Please provide an explanation of the necessity of this treatment)
- Outline your personal equestrian goals

Selection will be made from the candidates whose completed applications are received by the QMS Equestrian Office by April 29. Students must have re-registered before their application will be considered.
